

» Hide to Seek

Coach showcases leather's softer side by putting three-quarter-length sleeves and a megabow on a spring jacket. • $498 at Coach, Beverly Hills, 310-247-1309 or coach.com.

» Grammy Winner

Dan Marty Design turns gramophone speakers into hanging lamps. • $1,300 each at Dan Marty Design, Pacific Design Center, West Hollywood, 310-652-6928 or danmartydesign.com.

» Here's the Skinny

Nine-to-five? Eastside stylista? Fashion lovers of any stripe (and gender) can work a Thomas Pink tie. • "Bale Colorblock" ties, $100 each at Thomas Pink, Westfield Century City, 310-843-0014 or thomasplnk.com.

» Down to Earth

Comfortable shoes that breathe are an April must. The "Mary Jane" flat by Tod's complements a trapeze dress or skinny jeans. • $495 at Tod's, Beverly Hills, 310-285-0591 or tod's.com.

» Mix Master

Miriam Haskell's collar is the jewelry equivalent of a supernova, with glass pearls, Swarovski crystals, and silver-plated hand-cast findings. • $900 at Nordstrom, South Coast Plaza, Costa Mesa, 714-549-8300 or miriamhaskell.com.

» Basket Case

Though it's meant for men, John Varvatos's new fragrance, Artisan, will appeal to anyone drawn to citrus smells. • $55 (75 ml) and $75 (125 ml) at Sephora, Santa Monica, 310-395-3460 or johnvarvatosfragrance.com.

» The Little Things

Hatch marks on stacked Philip Press rings add old-world allure. Each 14-karat yellow gold band features a round-cut .15-carat diamond. • $1,575 at Philip Press, L.A., 310-360-1180 or philippress.com.

