GREENHILL'S WINTER SHOW GROWS NC ART ENGAGEMENT STATEWIDE
December 6, 2020 – February 7, 2021

(GREENSBORO, NC) GreenHill Center for North Carolina Art presents its 41st annual WINTER SHOW featuring more than 400 works by emerging and established artists from all corners of the state in a variety of mediums. Reinvented for social distancing, this year's exhibition provides greater viewing opportunities while building on four decades of excellence in the visual arts. Notable additions for 2020 are a comprehensive digital catalog to grow statewide engagement and small-group, in-person collector evenings. The show has been extended by 3-weeks until February 7.

Executive Director Barbara Richter notes: "At a time of historic uncertainty, enhancing visibility and economic opportunities for the state's creative community is more vital than ever. WINTER SHOW amplifies the creative expressions of NC artists and provides impactful financial support. From Bakersville to Elizabeth City and places in between, the exhibition offers paintings, sculpture, photography, ceramics, jewelry, wood- and fiber works all within one artful installation."

Curator Edie Carpenter explains: "WINTER SHOW continues to be an up-to-the-moment view of the visual arts in North Carolina. In-person and online visitors will discover Clarence Heyward (Clayton), Jaimon Caceres and Lakeshia T. Reid (Raleigh), LaDara McKinnon and Tina Vincent (Charlotte), Aaron Iaquinto (Asheville), Junghoon Han (High Point), and Andrew Caldwell (Boone) - all new artists to GreenHill whose artistic approaches and exceptional works reflect not only the geographic but cultural diversity of the state."

WINTER SHOW 2020 is presented by Mercedes Benz of Greensboro with vital support from Alderman Company, Frank L. Blum Construction, Fenwick Foundation, Womble Bond Dickinson, Honda Aircraft, Proximity Hotel and Print Works Bistro, Stifel, D. Stone Builders, and generous contributions from Lincoln Financial Group, LT Apparel, Sharp Business Systems, Debbie Champagne, Kara Cox Interiors, Pinnacle Financial Partners, Piedmont Natural Gas, Printery and Well-Spring (as of 10/22).

WINTER SHOW is free and open to the public. Visitors are encouraged to go to GreenHillNC.org for updates and details on safety protocols.

WINTER SHOW PUBLIC OPENING

Sunday, December 6, 2020 | 1:00 PM--6:00 PM

GreenHill presents its annual exhibition of works by North Carolina artists in glass, wood, ceramics, metal and fiber as well as painting, photography and works on paper. All artworks in WINTER SHOW are available for sale (and tax-free on 12/6). Purchases support the state's creative community. GreenHill's 5,000 square foot galleries can easily accommodate 25 or more visitors safely. Advance registration is not required, but visits will be spaced to facilitate social distancing.
